

The Rambling Soldier

The image shows a musical score for the song 'The Rambling Soldier'. It consists of seven staves of music, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are written below the notes. The music is written in a simple, folk-like style with a steady rhythm. The lyrics are: 'I've been to the wars and I've lost one leg, While fight - - ing over the oc-ean, I've fought for king and coun-try too, Won hon-our and pro-mo - - tion, So my jol - ly, jol - ly crew, I'll bid you all a - dieu, No more to the wars___ will I go with you, But I'll tra - vel the coun - try through and through, And___ still be a ram - bling'.

I've been to the wars and I've lost one leg, While fight - - ing over the oc-ean, I've fought for king and coun-try too, Won hon-our and promo - - tion, So my jol - ly, jol - ly crew, I'll bid you all a - dieu, No more to the wars___ will I go with you, But I'll tra - vel the coun - try through and through, And___ still be a ram - bling

I've been to the wars and I've lost one leg, While fighting over the ocean,
I fought for king and country too,
Won honour and promotion,
So my jolly, jolly crew,
I'll bid you all adieu
No more to the wars will I go with you,
But I'll travel the country through and through,
And still be a rambling soldier

And if anybody here wants to know my name,
My name it is Ben Johnson,
I have a message from the King
To court all girls that are handsome,
To court 'em all both old and young,
To court 'em all and marry none
To court 'em all and amrry marry none
And still be a rambling soldier
