The Guide Dog, Bevois Valley, Southampton:
second and fourth Tuesdays

Upcoming events

23 September - Friction Farm

Modern-folk duo Friction Farm, is a husband and wife team of traveling troubadours. Aidan Quinn and Christine Stay, combine storytelling, social commentary and humor to create songs of everyday life, local heroes, and quirky observations. Their lyrically rich, harmony-driven songs earned them spots as Kerrville New Folk Finalists, Falcon Ridge Emerging Artists, and South Florida Folk Festival Songwriter winners. Friction Farm's latest CD, "Evidence of Hope", which reached #10 on the Folk Radio Chart, was inspired by the collision of strong political polarity with personal kindness, the intersection of fragility and breathtaking beauty.

28th October - Ian Brown at the Guide dog.

Ian W Brown is the only known pig farmer to be nominated for an Ivor Novello Award. All the way from the New Forest. He takes to the stage to play some of his songs that have graced the charts and so many more that haven't. His finely-honed everyman tales and self-deprecating musical outings are interspersed with tall tales from the music business, life, love and the universe.
